

NATIONALS DOWN YANKES AGUIN--CHICAGO TAKES FINAL FROM INDIANS--MARLBOROUGH EATEN PILE UP BIG SCORE

Yank Pennant Hopes Shattered As Courtney Hurls Griffs to Victory

New York, Sept. 25.—Washington booted the faintest pennant aspirations of the Yankees for a goal today when they made it two out of three with the New Yorkers, winning 5 to 2. Harry Courtney allowed six scattered hits for two runs and managed to keep Babe Ruth from increasing his home-run record. The Nationals bunched their six hits off Shawkey and McGraw for five runs.

Courtney kept the hits well scattered and only in one instance did the Yankees manage to collect two bingles in the same frame. Only in the fourth, when Pipp and Ruth singled in succession, did the New Yorkers appear threatening. However, a double play, O'Rourke to Harris to Judge, smothered the Yankee chances with the damage of only one run.

Courtney Shows His Stuff.

Outside of this round, the Nationals' twirler had the heavy artillery of the Polo Grounds at his mercy. Peck singled in the second, but was expunged on a double play. Hannah singled in the fifth but was also killed off by a double play. Ward got the Yankees' fifth hit in the sixth, when he doubled to left, but he was likewise stranded when the next two Yankees were retired. Ward got his second hit in the eighth when he hit for the circuit.

The Nationals likewise did not receive too many hits. However, they made their bingles count. Rice led in the attack, getting two hits in five trips to the plate. Courtney produced one run all by his lonesome. Courtney's home run in the third inning, when he lifted the pellet far and high to right field, was the third in the inning, and Frank Brower, the Babe Ruth of the International League, garnered one hit in two trips, then Roth took his place in right field.

O'Rourke Is Sensation.

Frank O'Rourke played another sensational game in the field, accepting seven chances without a slip. In the third inning, when O'Rourke stepped to the plate, players of both teams gathered about him. Friends from Elizabeth, N. J., his home town, presented him with a purse containing $200 in gold, and as usual on such occasions, the recipient of the gift struck out.

ADGERS FALL BROOKLYN OUTFIELDERS READY TO GIVE GOOD ACCOUNT OF THEMSELVES IN WORLD SERIES

Near Champions Put Up Loose Exhibition and Lose By Score of 8 to 0.

Brooklyn, Sept. 25.—Brooklyn was handed a great shock by the Giants today who treated them to an overwhelming defeat of 8 to 0. The Dodgers displayed far from championship form, showing up weak at the bat and were also guilty of loose fielding.

On the other hand the Giants showed up like pennant winners and landed on Burleigh Grimes, the Robin's pitching ace, hard and consistently from the first inning and he was forced to retire after two men in the seventh inning hit safely.

Every visiting batsman broke into the bingle column. Young and Doyle each collected three safe blows. Two of Larry's blows were doubles and the Giants second sacker flashed brilliantly in the field, as did Frisch. The attendance was probably a record breaker and the crowd was so great outside the ballpark that several small riots resulted.

The Giants cut loose with a fierce opening attack that scored runs from runs and all broke Grimes from the mound. After Burns had been thrown out by Kilduff, Bancroft lined over first base for a triple and scored on a wild pitch. Young walked, and Grimes's walking to the right center field fence. The return from the field was wild but when Frisch attempted to score on a throw past third base he was caught by the concrete stand into Otto Miller's hands. Kelly followed with a smashing drive over the top of the clubhouse into the left field.

MARYLAND ELEVEN OPENS Season With Victory, 54-0

By JACK NYE.

Maryland University cracked open the gridiron season at College Park yesterday afternoon by running wild on the light and inexperienced eleven from Randolph-Macon College and piling up a score of 54 to 0.

In this, the only test before the games with Rutgers and Princeton, Coach Byrd had hoped for stiff opposition for his men, but the Virginians were woefully weak. They lacked everything except fighting spirit, in which they conceded nothing to their heavier opponents.

It was ideal weather for baseball, but Old Red, beaming down in mid-summer style, made the afternoon a tough one for the gridiron warriors. Maryland's backs ran their tongues out and substitutions were made thick and fast by both teams.

Semler Shows His Speed. Eddie Semler, the Maryland quarterback, featured the afternoon with his broken field running, getting away repeatedly for gains of from twenty to forty yards. He was ably assisted by "Lefty" Randolph, who played at halfback, while Roy Mackert and Captain McDonald, who divided the work at fullback, fanned the Virginia line full of gaping holes, through which they galloped for consistent gains.

Coach F. H. Goff, of the Randolph-Macon eleven, is a capable mentor in the University of Illinois, but has had no time to develop the green material he found upon reporting to the University of Illinois. With only one veteran back in the harness when practice began six days ago, he was confronted by a task to mould a team in time to face the Staters. The aggregation of players, however, was good. With only one veteran back in the harness when practice began six days ago, he was confronted by a task to mould a team in time to face the Staters.

Lefty Brown continued the south-paw pitching after Kagle won his game. Brown batted with Strain in the eighth inning, but the aforesaid had little to do in the winning run for Shops with a slashing single to right, scoring Roche and Lester.

Next Saturday Shops will make a trip to Richmond to give battle to the clubmen in two more games, which will settle the inter-city championship. The scores:
